

Oregon Bach Festival 2018 Volunteer Registration Form

Hello OBF Volunteer,

The Oregon Bach Festival is right around the corner! This year is going to be spectacular with the world premiere of the Passion of Yeshua by Richard Danielpour and the regional premiere of Philip Glass Piano Concerto No. 3 featuring Simone Dinnerstein.

During the 2017 festival our volunteers (YOU!) donated more than 1,000 hours of service toward OBF's success. You help our artists, students and audience enjoy a welcoming experience year after year. OBF volunteers make it possible to bring high quality performances and innovative educational opportunities to our community and worldwide.

THANK YOU!

We look forward to seeing you soon!

Please complete the following information:

Basic information

Hourly Credit

For every four hours of service to OBF you will receive a ticket voucher for an OBF concert. We will keep track of your hours, but we recommend you record them too!

The Fine Print

- When you volunteer for program distribution, or as a driver you will receive a ticket to that performance which will count as your compensation for the hours worked at the event.
- Vouchers are NOT available to use for the Philip Glass Concert on July 11th. If you want tickets to this popular concert, I suggest buying the NOW!
- No more than 4 tickets can be used for one concert.
- Volunteer vouchers are subject to availability.
- Shift sign-up schedules will be sent out the first few weeks of April.

Please return this form and the included Conditions of Service (yellow) Form to:

- Scanning both forms and emailing to jenn.thompson@uoregon.edu
- fax to (541) 346-5669
- mail to: Oregon Bach Festival
