

WELCOME TO OBF 2025

Dear Friends of the Festival,

As we prepare for our 2025 “Uncovering Bach” season, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your philanthropic support of Oregon Bach Festival. Your investment brings exceptional performances, education experiences, and engagement programs to our community, and ensures a strong artistic and financial future for Oregon Bach Festival. On behalf of the entire OBF family, thank you!

The 2025 festival presents an exciting lineup of programs including Bach’s Mass in B Minor, all six Brandenburg Concertos, and Carmina Burana. Paul Jacobs returns with The Art of Fugue, and the OBF Chorus dazzles us with Craig Hella Johnson’s Considering Matthew Shepard. Imani Winds returns with Passion for Bach and Coltrane, and we’ll experience a sunset concert at Mount Pisgah Arboretum. With 17 main stage concerts and more than 15 free events, OBF 2025 offers something for everyone!

For those who want the complete festival experience, I encourage you to consider the OBF+ package—featuring the best reserved seats, the best prices, Hult Center parking passes, and a keepsake access badge. Looking for ultimate flexibility? Create your own festival package! Start with any three concerts and add as many as you’d like for just $35 each.

Your Friends of the Festival buying period is Tuesday, March 11 at noon through Friday, April 4. Order forms are enclosed, but I strongly suggest you secure your seats online at HultCenter.org using the code at the top of this page. Single tickets go on sale to the general public April 8, so don’t wait!

We know you look forward to being a Friend of the Festival each summer. In 2025, your ‘Friends’ experiences reflect your cumulative giving from January 2024 - March 2025. If you have not contributed to OBF recently, there are optional fields on the enclosed forms. We are immeasurably grateful for each gift we receive.

From all of us at Oregon Bach Festival, thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Lisa Bostwick

Senior Associate Director of Development
